

WEB WIREFRAME

This is a generic web wireframe – page schematic or screen blueprint – that represents the skeletal framework of a website and gives you a visual guide before creating all the pages and content. It was produced using the internet tools iPlotz.

